FREEZE WOULD DAMAGE FRUITS

Prospects Good for Heavy Crop
Peaches and Pears—Beginning to Bloom.

A heavy frost or severe freeze at the present time, according to the belief of many, would do irreparable damage to the peach and pear crop of Hamilton and other counties in this fruit belt. Thousands of peach trees at the present time are heavily loaded with buds, which are just beginning to show the pink. In another week, with such weather as has prevailed recently, would see the peach trees in full bloom. It is believed, if the cold weather and frosts keep away, there will be one of the heaviest peach crops known for years in this section. Large and small trees are showing signs of bearing heavily. Even the smallest and youngest trees are full of buds, that only lack a few days of warmth and sunshine to bring them into bloom.

Pear and cherry trees are also beginning to bloom profusely, and would also be greatly damaged by a cold and freezing spell.

WELL-KNOWN BARBER

VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA
J. L. Johnson, Colored, Dies
After Only Four Days' Illness.
Funeral Thursday.

J. L. Johnson, one of Chattanooga's best known colored barbers, died Tuesday afternoon, after an illness of four days with pneumonia. He was at the time of being stricken employed by the Powell barber shop, No. 6 West Ninth street, and enjoyed the friendship of a large number of people, both white and colored.

He was 32 years of age, and leaves a wife and one child. The funeral will take place from the residence, 24 Stral street, at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, followed by interment in Pleasant Garden cemetery, east of Mission ridge. The burial will be conducted by the Masonic lodge, of which he was a member. He was also a member of the barbers' union, and the members of this organization are especially invited to attend the funeral services.

NOTED EVANGELIST TO CONDUCT SERVICES
Centenary Church Prepares for a Series of Revival Services to Begin Next Sunday.

Beginning next Sunday morning, Rev. Luther Bridges, of Gainesville, Ga., one of the south's most successful evangelists, will begin a series of services at Centenary M. E. church, south, and, according to plans laid at the meeting of the board of stewards on Tuesday night, this is going to be one of the most interesting services held in the historic old church for many years.

Rev. Bridges is not unknown in Chattanooga, he having conducted a most successful series of revival meetings at a Highland Park church two years ago, which resulted in many additions to the membership of that church and the spiritual upbuilding of the congregation.

Rev. Bridges will be accompanied by a leader of music, and his wife, who is a wonderful pianist, will be the accompanist for the services.

Dr. E. E. Wiley, pastor of Centenary church, and Dr. J. H. Ward, presiding elder of the Chattanooga district, will assist in the services.

The entire board of stewards has promised its co-operation to make these meetings a decided success.

The first service will be held at 11 a.m. Sunday, and there will be two services each day during the continuance of the series, which will be at least two weeks or longer, if the interest manifested justifies.

An especial appeal is made to soldiers to attend these services, and they are promised a large part in the meetings.

JURY FINDS FOR COMPLAINANT

Verdict for $5,000 Against Gas Company for Death of Negro. Liability Law Plays Part.

A verdict for $5,000 was returned in the circuit court late Tuesday afternoon in favor of F. J. Hoge, administrator against the Chattanooga Gas company. The suit was for $15,000 and grew out of the death of Will Cantrell, colored, who was run over and killed by a team belonging to the gas company and driven by two of its employees. An interesting point of law became involved in the case when the allegation was made that the drivers of the wagon were drunk and were driving the horses in a swinging trot.

Counsel for the defendant made the point as to whether or not employees were liable for the action of employees when the employees were in an intoxicated condition. Sam Ford, representing the complainant, insisted that an act of a servant was that of a master, whether in a drunken condition or any other condition.

George Lancaster, however, insisted that the gas company could not be held liable for the act of a drunken employee. However, Judge Bachman allowed the case to go to the jury on the facts as proved and the result was a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

Cantrell, it will be remembered, was killed about a year ago in front of his home on St. Elmo avenue. It seems that while standing talking with another negro a wagon came along and the other negro asked to be allowed to ride. He was given permission and ran and jumped in the back of the wagon, facing towards Cantrell. About that time it is claimed, the gas company's wagon came along, the team in a full gallop, and struck Cantrell, who had his back turned towards them. Cantrell was knocked down and run over, later dying from his injuries.

The companion of Cantrell stated that when he jumped in the wagon and turned around he saw the team on a dead run, and called to Cantrell to look out, but it was too late and he was struck. A notice of an appeal was given.

SECRET SERVICE MEN HAVE CONFERENCE

Seek to Co-Ordinate Work of Ferreting Out of Enemy Aliens.

Washington, March 6.—Representatives of the various government bureaus of investigation and secret service were called into conference today at the department of justice to discuss means of co-ordinating their work and eliminating duplication in the ferreting out of enemy agents. These meetings have been held weekly for nearly two months. It was disclosed today, although heretofore care has been taken to maintain secrecy. Officials finally consented to publication of the facts, after it became evident that propaganda is being conducted throughout the country for the purpose of consolidation of
